Law Requires Auto Signals Next Monday

Maine's new law on auto driving signals will become effective next Monday, and drivers will be required to signal their intentions of turning and stopping either by hand or automatic signals.

If hand signals are used the law requires that they be uniform and specific the following:

Stop—left arm extended horizontally, palm of hand facing toward rear.

Exceptions are when the stop or turn will not interfere with traffic or if required to stop quickly in emergency. The law is said to affect only passenger cars.

TAFT SPEAKER AT MAINE GOJ JAMBOREE NEXT WEEK

Senator Robert A Taft of Ohio, Republican presidential aspirant and the GOP's policy leader in the Senate, will arrive in Maine on August 21 accompanied by Senator Owen Brewster and other national and New England Republican leaders according to Robert L Jones, executive director of the Maine Republican Jamboree. The Senator will meet with representatives of the press and radio at 7:30 P. M. at the Eastland Hotel in Portland before proceeding on his trip to Kneeland for the Maine GOP Jamboree on the 22nd.

Following the press-radio conference he will then meet with Republican leaders of Maine. En route to Kneeland, Taft will visit the Cole Memorial at Thomaston at 9:30 A. M. where he will inspect the Revolutionary War home of George Washington's outstanding cannon.

The Taft party is expected at the Hotel Rockland at 10 A. M. at which time an informal reception will be held in honor of the Senator by the Maine Republican Women. During the morning, Taft will also meet with the Republican State Committee and the Maine Federation of Womens Republican Clubs.

In the afternoon, following his 2 P. M. broadcast, he will visit the Farnsworth Museum at Rockland and then chat with the Maine Young Republican Council at 4 P. M.

The Jamboree is open to the public and will start at 10 A. M. In addition to meetings of the various Republican State groups, there will be social festivities, dancing and skating.

Hotel Inn guests are occupying rooms in the rebuilt school house on Broad Street.

MRS. SUSAN WIGHT

A wave of sadness swept through the homes of the town of Newry on Thursday morning, August 9, when the news was passed along that Susan Wight had been called to her eternal rest. Mrs Wight had not been well for some time but she had attended to her household, official and social duties until about a week before her passing.

Susan Ferren was born in Errol, N. H., on January 10, 1888, the daughter of the late Frank and Elizabeth Ferren.

On December 31, 1910, she became the wife of Lon E. Wight of Newry and here they have always lived.

Mrs Wight's chief interest was in her home, where her first thought was for the comfort and happiness of her husband and children, but her work reached far beyond the home as she served her community and town and farther still in Order of Patrons of Humanity. She was a valued and loyal member of Bear River Grange, Oxford Pomona and the Maine State Grange, in all of which she had held offices, and was a member of the Home and Community Welfare Committee of the Maine State Grange at the time of her death.

Mrs Wight was serving her thirtieth consecutive year as Town Clerk and Treasurer of Newry and during the past few days many expressions of her efficient, cheerful and faithful service have been voiced by those whom she served.

It was fitting that the funeral service should be held in the little church where she had worshipped and served as organist for so many years.

The large attendance and the profusion of flowers were a testimony of many friendships as well as an expression of sympathy for her loved ones.

Interment was at the North Cemetery.

Besides her husband she leaves two children Daniel M. Wight of Rumford and Elizabeth Wight Culver of Greenport, Long Island, N. Y., three grandsons Eric and Kevin Wight and Lynn Culver; one sister, Mrs. Claudio Herrick of Rumford Everett of Newry, Jessie of Worcester Mass., and Percy of Houghton.

The following tribute by her pastor, Wm. W. Nelson, will find a response in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

All that is good and noble and gracious in womanhood we have seen in the life of this faithful servant of God. Her husband and her family are a devoted wife and mother to her community; she was a faithful steward and faithful servant. To all young people to all the world she was a friend thinking of them, working for them and together with her beloved husband providing music for their enjoyment. She was a loyal supporter of many groups of her community, the church, the Farm Bureau, and the Grange both locally and State.

Of her many accomplishments we could speak much but more important was the beautiful and gracious way in which she did it. She gave her work not as a chore but as a privilege. Her unselfishness and thoughtful sympathy made us want to be in her home. For her husband and children and for her brothers and sisters we truly offer our affectionate sympathy.

Parade, Band, Booths in Bazaar Plans

Plans are well under way for the Bazaar, which will be held on the Common Saturday, August 25.

A parade will be one of the main features. Every business place is invited to enter in this with floats, and also it is hoped the children will all be on hand in their various costumes, to make this one of the best parades. Prizes will be awarded for the best floats, and also to the children. A band has been engaged to lead the parade and give a concert later.

A meeting will be held Tuesday night, August 21, at the Legion Home. Final plans will be outlined then, and it is hoped a good representation of organizations will be there, as at that time it will be decided where each booth will be located.

This is an important meeting, so please remember the date, Aug. 21.

FIREMEN LEARN OF ARSON CASES N. FRYEBURG MEETING

Twenty-three members representing 16 towns were present Monday evening when North Fryeburg Firemen's Association entertained the Western Maine Firemen's Association. The meeting opened with a supper at 6:30, served by the Auxiliary. The group then gathered on the second floor for the business session.

President Lyman E. Elia, Fryeburg, called the meeting to order at 8:35 with the secretary's report of the July meeting. The treasurer's report was accepted. Bills were acted upon.

Chief John Fox Lovell announced that that town would have the next meeting in the church vestry at Center Lovell on Monday, Sept. 17, and a supper will precede the meeting. This will also be Ladies' Night, and all of the fair stars are cordially invited.

Dan Buzzell then introduced Charles Hogan of Bangor, who spoke on arson cases.

Andre the Magician of East St. Louis, Mo., presented some very mystifying tricks which held the rapt attention of the audience. Tom Holm wound up the program with a series of juggling acts.

Forbes Chapel Dedication To Be Sunday

You are cordially invited to attend the Dedication of the Eleanor B. Forbes Chapel at Ferry Beach on Sunday, Aug. 19, at 11 a.m.

Dr Weston A. Cate of North Adams, Mass., will preach and Rev. Eleanor B. Forbes will take part in the service. The West Paris Choir under the direction of Mrs. Avia Stellhorn will sing.

In addition to the Dedication Service, there will be an interest service in the afternoon. Among other speakers will be Robert Needham of Arlington, Mass., who will give historical papers on the past fifty years.

The Eleanor B. Forbes Chapel will be dedicated and the 60th anniversary of the Ferry Beach Summer Sessions will be observed at exercises there beginning Sunday morning, Aug. 19.

Located in the grove, the new-outdoor Chapel will be dedicated to the Rev. Miss Forbes, minister emeritus of the First Universalist Church in West Paris, who has been an attendant at the Ferry Beach summer sessions for the past 47 years. The Chapel replaces the one which was destroyed during the November storm last year.

A native of Buckfield, Miss. Forbes served churches at Gray, New Gloucester, Canton was pastor of the First Universalist Church at West Paris for 27 years before her retirement in 1949.

The Rev. Weston A. Cate, D.D., minister of the First Universalist Church at North Adams, Mass., and former vice-president of the Ferry Beach Association, will deliver the dedication sermon at the services which will begin at 11 A.M. in the grove.

The dedicatory prayer will be given by the Rev. Leslie C. Nichols of the Melrose, Mass., Universalist Church. The Chapel will be accepted by Chester W. Hastings Jr., President of the Ferry Beach Park Association.

The Rev. Walter E. Kellison, superintendent of Universalist Churches in Maine and Association manager, will conduct the dedication of an electric organ in memory of David A. Murphy of Springfield, Mass., a Youthful Ferry Brasher.

The Rev. Dr. John H. G. Jones, the "Spirit of Ferry Beach," The Junior Choir of West Paris Church will sing two anthems.

Others participating in the program will be the Rev. Warren D. Lawrence of the Westbrook Unitarian Church; The Rev. D. Stanley Hanson of the Messiah of All Souls Universalist Church, Paris, and the Rev. Dr. John F. Hawkes of Great Andover, Mass., and for

CUCUMBER SCAB PREVALENT IN OXFORD COUNTY

The wet weather that we have been having for the past few days has made ideal conditions for the spread of cucumber scab. Growers should keep their vines dusted with copper to prevent the spread of scab as much as possible.

Copper is not an eradicator and once scab is on the vines and fruit, it cannot be burned out, but if the vines are covered with a copper, it will prevent spread by killing the spores as they land on the young, infected part of the plant.

In most cases, enough fertilizer has been used to give good growth, but the cool days we have had just will not let the vines pick up the available plant food.

Organic sprays have been used to control scab, but they have not given the results that neutral copper has in Maine. Copper are not one hundred percent effective, but they are the best control that has been found to date. The Maine Experiment Station is doing some plant breeding work to develop a variety that is resistant to cucumber scab.

BEANS AND CORN HELD BACK BY COLD WEATHER

The cold weather of the past few days is holding back the growth of beans and corn in Oxford County. Beans, especially, do not seem to be recovering after the first picking. In many cases the beans have been side-dressed with nitrogen to stimulate growth, but it has been so cold that the plants are not taking up the plant food that is in the ground.

Blimpies stand, which are troubling some folks, are caused by wet spots in the field, planter out of adjustment, planting too deep, and fertilizer burn. Quite a lot of halo blight has been found in beans.

There is nothing that can be done about the disease this year. The only control is to plant clean seed.

Highburn Farm is the scene of some breeding work that is going on to try to find a bean that has the desirable qualities and is resistant to halo blight.

Bean yields are rather light on early pickings. This is due, almost entirely, in most cases, to the cold weather.

Mr. superintendents of Maine Universalist Churches and The Rev. Paul W. Dolphin, pastor of the First Universalist Church of West Paris.

In the afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock an historical program will be conducted by Robert P. Needham, a former Association of Arlington, Mass., who will present a historical sketch of Ferry Beach. Tours of the beach and an informal organ recital will follow.

EASY DOES IT

Small closets which do not need to be used for clothes can be converted into sewing closets. All sewing and pressing equipment can be stored here, including the machine, a small ironing board and an iron. Have small composition cabinets to hold thread, scrap materials, buttons, trimmings and scissors. Crisp cotton lace on a nylon blouse by placing the lace between two sheets of heavily waxed paper and using a warm iron. None of the wax will go on the nylon, and yet it will stiffen the lace.

Do you exchange slips of plants with friends? An easy way to transport the tender slips is to wrap them carefully in waxed paper and place in an empty butter or lard carton. They cannot be crushed, and the package is easy to carry.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Pork Supper Casserole
(Serves 4)
1 cup cooked pork, cut in strips
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 tablespoon fat
¼ cup vinegar
½ cup water
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups cooked green beans
2 cups cooked sliced carrots
Brown onion in fat in skillet. Combine vinegar, water, cornstarch, sugar and salt; stir into onions. Heat. Add pork; cook 10 minutes. Add beans and carrots. Heat slowly in a casserole for 20 to 25 minutes in a moderate oven.

Keep a small cellulose sponge in the kitchen, as well as in the bathroom into which you put small scraps of soap. This keeps soap trays clean and also provides a handy sponge for quick clean-up jobs.

You know good people, and without choosing to appear smarthy, we should not act one half as loony as we do act. Here we are spending money on education far and beyond that of any other Nation—and what is the answer?

Russia spends nothing to speak of on school houses—Russia has communism. We say the Russian people with little schooling—are duck soup for communism. We have in our enlightened land don't fall for communism, but listen, we are duck soup for socialism. And keeping right on with enlightenment theory, and proving that enlightenment only goes so far, how come we don't catch on that socialism is just an early symptom of coming communism. About the only difference between chronic socialism and chronic communism is as to who is the boss-man—the dictator.

If our education program is worth a hoot—and if it's on the up and up how come our half loony, suckerish behavior. How come we countenance Govt. ownership, municipal ownership, socialism. We just as well be saving the school expense. Folks with good answers, send 'em in—send 'em to ye Ed—send 'em prepaid. Thanks, folks.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERINA

Golden Text: "Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift my soul . . . Show my thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy path." (Psalms 25:14).

GLASS ROOTS OPINION

Liberal, Kan., Daily Times: "Everybody now has, or should have, an interest in taxation, and in governmental extravagance and waste. A blanket demand for government economy is the only way it will ever ease up, this newspaper believes."

Versailles, Ky., Woodford Sun: "The Federal bureaucracy obviously does not want to play on the nation's anti-inflation team. The Army set up a requirement of 4,635,000 web belts for the year 1951. This is three belts per man . . . Its 1951 requirement for combat boots was set at 11,753,000 pairs, although the total consumption was estimated at 4,800,000. Military 'scarc' buying not only precipitates general shortages of consumer goods, but naturally forces up the price of goods thus bought. For example, since June 1950 the price of army blankets has risen from $7.82 to $16.00 each; combat boots from $6.02 to $11.63 per pair; army matresses from $7.83 to $13.42 each; winter drawers from $1.55 to $4.15 per pair, and so on down a long tail."

NORTON - NEWTON

Miss Beverly Ann Norton and Carlton Ellsworth Newton were married Aug. 5 at the Mans at West Paris. The ceremony was performed by Rev Eleanor B Forbes, who used the double ring service.

Attendants were Helen N. Wilkins, matron of honor, an aunt of the bride, and Leonard Newton, brother of the groom, as best man.

The bride wore a pale pink suit with white hat and wore a corsage of white gladioli. Her attendant wore powder blue gown with a corsage of pink gladioli.

The bride's gift to her attendant was a necklace, bracelet, and ear levers set and the groom gave his attendant a billfold.

Mrs. Norton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Norton of Buckfield. She attended Buckfield High School and is a member of Mountain Grange No. 104.

Mr. Norton is the son of Mrs. Ellen Newton of Buckfield. He is a member of Mountain Grange No. 104.

The bride's traveling suit was of Nile green. They left on a week-long trip to Rangeley Lakes. After which they will be at home in an apartment at the home of the groom's mother.

Rev Eleanor B Forbes also united the groom's parents and grandparents in marriage.

A reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, with the bride and groom, their attendants, the bride's parents, and the groom's mother in the receiving line. Miss Lena M. Plummer was in charge of the guest book. Serving refreshments were Mrs. Jennie Head, Mrs Gladys Bennett and Mrs Beulah Warren. The guest room was in charge of Mrs. Ellen Newton and Mrs. Mildred Newton.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our relatives friends and neighbors, to the American Legion, Dr. and Mrs. Buil, Dr. Hilda Ives for the comforting words, S. S. Greenleaf Funeral Service and all who helped in any way, for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown us in our recent bereavement. Also for the beautiful floral tributes, cards and letters.

GREEN PASTURE JUDGING

The state Green Pasture committee began its work of judging the best pastures in every county of Maine last week. Ross Elliott, of East Corinth, is chairman. Other judges are Warren A Brockway, of Millinocket; Ernest F Additon, of Greene; Beverly P Rand, of Sherman Mills; Rox L Varnum of Sebec, and Albert K Gardner, of Orono, Maine commissioner of agriculture. Ralph A Corbett, of Orono, Extension dairyman, is accompanying the judges. Their work should be completed by now. The New England Judges will come to each New England state after August 20. They will inspect the three top pastures chosen for them by the state committees. County and community Green Pasture committees did much of the preliminary work. Pastures are generally in good condition with winter-killing clover making a comeback on many farms, says Richard F Talbot, secretary of the Green Pasture committee and Extension Service dairy specialist.
